Christine (Yitong) Sun

ys708@georgetown.edu • (650) 842 – 0387 (cell)
6873 McLean Province Cir, Falls Church, VA 22043

Education

Georgetown University, Edmund A. Walsh School of Foreign Service, Washington, DC	May 2022
Major & Minor: Science, Technology, and International Affairs & Computer Science	GPA: 3.75

Certificate: Global Business Fellows

Second Honors — December – May 2019

Work Experience

Council on Foreign Relations, Washington D.C — January 2019 – present
Research Consultant Intern
- Offer expert advice and research assistance regarding the Chinese #MeToo movement to the Director of Women & Foreign Policy Program for her upcoming academic publication.
- Create a bilingual, in-depth database of 80+ events during the Chinese #MeToo movement, which will be cited by the Director and published on GitHub.

Fuller Project for International Reporting, Washington D.C — January 2019 – August 2019
Business Development Intern
- Co-led the launch of organization website that reaches over 15 million viewers through actively communicating design and content requirements with the web development team.
- Spearheaded the migration to and organization of new donor management platform for more than 700 contacts, reducing preparation for weekly development reports from hours to one click.
- Prepared detailed progress report and PowerPoint deck that secured $500,000 annual funding for the organization.

Activities

Georgetown University Student Association, Georgetown University — September 2018 – present
Student Conduct Policy Chair & Member of Speech and Expression Committee
- Lead a team of 7 students to research and plan advocacy campaigns, press responses, and a semesterly forum that increase awareness of the University's Code of Conduct.
- Launched and lead a committee with 3 other campus organizations to produce a detailed policy report with alumni and parental support in order to register policy changes that impact 7000+ students.

Georgetown University Women Coders, Georgetown University — August 2019 – present
Director of Community Engagement & Board Member
- Ideated, designed, and pitched 8 iOS projects for 9 selected students to experiment with app development.
- Increased club membership by more than 50 individuals through semesterly outreach campaigns.

HoyaHacks, Georgetown University — September 2019 – present
Director of Marketing
- Co-direct Georgetown's Hackathon for approximately 250+ attendees by establishing communication standards, leading weekly progress meetings, and facilitating relationship with 50+ organizations.
- Developed comprehensive student recruitment materials that attracted more than 10 student organizers.

Projects

#MeToo in China — October 2019 – present
Product Owner
- Drafted a product roadmap consisting of prioritized features to guide the app's development.
- Design and code a bilingual, web-based app that showcases a timeline of 80+ events in the Chinese #MeToo movement with significant quotes and analyses.
  - Software: Adobe XD
  - Languages: HTML, CSS/SASS, JavaScript/jQuery

Technical & Language Skills

Native-level Fluency in Mandarin Chinese
HTML, CSS, JavaScript, jQuery, C++
Adobe XD, Photoshop, Premiere